

Help millions of low-income Americans and others who aren't required to file tax returns quickly register to get their Economic Impact Payment

What you can do to help

Print and attach these labels on items you already distribute. For example, attach them on:

- bags or as food wrap seals at food distribution sites
- toiletry and survival kits
- envelopes that include other resources
- goods or materials from federal, state or county benefit programs
- clothing bags

Or, print them on regular paper and tape, staple, paperclip or add to a small bag or envelope of materials or information.

Who needs this information

The IRS is conducting a sweeping outreach campaign to reach everyone who may be eligible for an Economic Impact Payment, including people who don't have a permanent address and those who don't normally file a federal tax return. You don't need income to be eligible.

Individuals who don't normally file taxes need to register by October 15 by using the Non-Filers: Enter Payment Info Here tool at IRS.gov/nonfilerEIP to receive their $1,200 payment. There's an additional $500 for qualifying children.

Individuals should NOT use the Non-Filer tool if they:

- receive Social Security retirement, disability (SSDI) or survivor benefits
- receive Supplemental Security Income (SSI)
- receive Veterans Affairs Compensation and Pension (C&P) benefits
- receive Railroad Retirement (RRB) benefits
- will file a 2019 return
- filed a 2018 or 2019 tax return

There are more details about automatic payments for these situations at IRS.gov/EIP, including how to check a payment status with the Get My Payment tool.

How to print

These labels are 1 x 3 inches, one of the most common sizes of labels. Print them on label sheets using the manufacturer's instructions. Remember not to print this cover sheet as a label.
